CAUTION!

PUBLIC SAFETY NOTICE

Police are advising the public to remain alert after the discovery of a body in the Windell apartments. Detectives are treating the death as suspicious, and a suspected killer is still at large.

Residents are advised to exercise caution, stay alert and avoid approaching any unfamiliar or suspicious individuals. Any relevant information must be reported directly to the Chipping Mere Constabulary immediately.

An 11:00pm curfew is now in effect until further notice.

It wasn't me

The real killer's name
is in this folder

These clues will lead
you to the truth

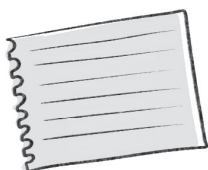

You're my only hope

Alice xxx

22-year old Alice Starling is missing.
In her apartment, the police found three things:

A DEAD BODY

A CRYPTIC NOTE

A FOLDER OF NAMES

What they don't know is that Alice entrusted you with a list of 18 clues that will reveal the killer's identity.

She needs you to identify the culprit and prove her innocence.

You stare down at the note, shaking, reading the first line over and over;

It wasn't me

You sure hope that's true...

INSTRUCTIONS

Exactly one name in this book satisfies all of the clues provided by Alice.

By eliminating the innocent names, your mission is to narrow down the possibilities until the only name left is the killer.

Eliminated names still count towards other clues. Reading the full list of clues will be helpful to understand which names (e.g. three-letter names) will be useful for other clues.

Any names referenced in Alice's clues must be found exactly as written in the book, so things like abbreviations or alternate spellings are not the same name!

Further clarifications on some of the clues and instructions for checking your solution are included at the back of the book, or are available on my website at www.thekillerisntalice.com
